

Government Efficiency and Reform Update

The GERC Committee has been studying innovative ways, using technology, so as to make government services more efficient and accessible to the citizenry.